

Leicester, June 29.th
Sund. p.m.

62

Dear Burleigh;

The arrangements are not yet all definitely made, but probably you will have one meeting in Worcester, and one or two in this place, on Saturday<sup>evg.</sup> & Sunday next. The details of these meetings have given me rather more work than usual. I find it difficult to excite much attention now to our handling of the question, beyond the ranks of our oldest friends. But things may turn out better than they now appear.

I think it probable I shall be in Northampton on Tuesday next (1st prox.) for the whole, or a part of the, day. If I should be, I shall try to get out & see you for half an hour or so. I think of stopping (if I go) at the Round Hill Hotel. If you are near R. H. after <sup>6 p.m.</sup> ~~dark~~ on Tuesday, I wish you would call & inquire for me.

At any rate, we shall expect you at Framingham on the 4th. In haste, Yrs. truly
Saml May Jr

Probably there will be a call here for one of your sermons next Sunday, I am not sure of it.

MS. B. 1. 6 v. 9, p. 36

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]